

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

M.M. Parrish Realtors Giving Back

AMERICAN HEART ASSOCIATION

Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish Realtors has been a proud supporter of the American Heart Association since 2001. Our company has participated in the annual Heart Walk by fielding a walk team and sponsoring Spirit Stations. In 2001, Susan Parrish served as Heart Ball Chair in memory of her husband, Jim Parrish, and continued to serve on the Leadership Team for the American Heart Association until 2006. Our company has been a corporate sponsor for the Heart Ball from 2002-2008.

Heart Walk, 2005

THE MARCH OF DIMES

The March of Dimes has long held a special place in the hearts of our family, our company, and our associates. From 1992-1997, we were a corporate sponsor for the March of Dimes Chain Reaction Youth Leadership Council. In 1997, Susan Parrish was recognized with Maura Indelicato as the outstanding volunteer advisors for the Southern Region of the March of Dimes. Since 2001, our company has participated in Walk America by sponsoring Spirit Stations and fielding a walk team.

March for Babies, 2007

THE SCHOOL BOARD OF ALACHUA COUNTY

To celebrate our 100th year in business, Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish Realtors has launched a series of events that will take place over the course of the 2011 calendar year. The first event is an exciting partnership with the School Board of Alachua County. This partnership includes two events:

100 Books on the 100th Day:
On The 100th day of the 2010-2011 school year, February 3rd, 2011, agents with Coldwell

Banker M.M. Parrish Realtors presented the principal of each elementary school in Alachua County with 4 copies of Mary Ann Hoberman's classic children's book, A House Is A House For Me.

Elementary School Art & Essay Contest: Playing on the theme, "A House is a House For Me," Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish Realtors sponsored an Art & Essay contest for elementary school students in Alachua County. We received 106 entries into the art contest and 66 entries into the essay contest and had 13 of the area schools participate! With three age groups, three winners in each age group were presented with a $100 savings bond at the February 15th, School Board Meeting.

Alachua County School Board Meeting, February 15th, 2011

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish Realtors and Habitat for Humanity partnered to build two homes for deserving families in Gainesville. The construction of these homes, located in the Celebration Oaks neighborhood east of Waldo Road, proved to be a rewarding and memorable experience. The first home was built in 2004 followed by a second in 2006. The families are proud to call these buildings home and we, as a company, are proud to have played a part in making it happen.

In 2011, the Parrish Family donated Melton Manor, an 11 acre subdivision, to Habitat for Humanity for future home sites. Also, in 2011, Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish Realtors is pleased to partner with the City of Gainesville, the School of Building Construction at Santa Fe College, and Publix Charities to build another Habitat home.

Melton Manor, 2011

Find Your Way Home.

COLDWELL BANKER

M. M. PARRISH REALTORS

mmparrish.com

Each Office Is Independently Owned And Operated.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

M.M. Parrish Realtors Giving Back

AMERICAN HEART ASSOCIATION

Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish Realtors has been a proud supporter of the American Heart Association since 2001. Our company has participated in the annual Heart Walk by fielding a walk team and sponsoring Spirit Stations. In 2001, Susan Parrish served as Heart Ball Chair in memory of her husband, Jim Parrish, and continued to serve on the Leadership Team for the American Heart Association until 2006. Our company has been a corporate sponsor for the Heart Ball from 2002-2008.

Heart Walk, 2005

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish Realtors and Habitat for Humanity partnered to build two homes for deserving families in Gainesville. The construction of these homes, located in the Celebration Oaks neighborhood east of Waldo Road, proved to be a rewarding and memorable experience. The first home was built in 2004 followed by a second in 2006. The families are proud to call these buildings home and we, as a company, are proud to have played a part in making it happen.

Melton Manor, 2011

In 2011, the Parrish Family donated Melton Manor, an 11 acre subdivision, to Habitat for Humanity for future home sites. Also, in 2011, Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish Realtors is pleased to partner with the City of Gainesville, the School of Building Construction at Santa Fe College, and Publix Charities to build another Habitat home.

THE MARCH OF DIMES

The March of Dimes has long held a special place in the hearts of our family, our company, and our associates. From 1992-1997, we were a corporate sponsor for the March of Dimes Chain Reaction Youth Leadership Council. In 1997, Susan Parrish was recognized with Maura Indelicato as the outstanding volunteer advisors for the Southern Region of the March of Dimes. Since 2001, our company has participated in Walk America by sponsoring Spirit Stations and fielding a walk team.

March for Babies, 2007

Chain Reaction Youth Leadership Council

THE SCHOOL BOARD OF ALACHUA COUNTY

To celebrate our 100th year in business, Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish Realtors has launched a series of events that will take place over the course of the 2011 calendar year. The first event is an exciting partnership with the School Board of Alachua County. This partnership includes two events:

100 Books on the 100th Day: On The 100th day of the 2010-2011 school year, February 3rd, 2011, agents with Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish Realtors presented the principal of each elementary school in Alachua County with 4 copies of Mary Ann Hoberman's classic children's book, A House Is A House For Me.

Alachua County School Board Meeting, February 15th, 2011

Elementary School Art & Essay Contest: Playing on the theme, "A House is a House For Me," Coldwell Banker M.M. Parrish Realtors sponsored an Art & Essay contest for elementary school students in Alachua County. We received 106 entries into the art contest and 66 entries into the essay contest and had 13 of the area schools participate! With three age groups, three winners in each age group were presented with a $100 savings bond at the February 15th, School Board Meeting.

COLDWELL BANKER

M. M. PARRISH REALTORS

mmparrish.com

Find Your Way Home.

Each Office Is Independently Owned And Operated.